Dear Josh:

I enjoyed reading the first issue of Research Profiles and found it interesting and informative. At the same time, I wonder if it might not be fruitful to add to this publication a section on news and developments at your university. I continue to have the feeling that most people--both laymen and scientists--are not sufficiently aware of the breadth of activities at your excellent institution.

Thank you also for the copy of George Corner's letter.

As ever,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John".
